

The Alentejo – Old Portugal

FROM €3,250 PER COUPLE

The Alentejo means beyond the Tagus, the majestic river that meets the Atlantic at Lisbon. The Alentejo covers a third of Portugal from the Atlantic to the Spanish border, but has less than 10% of Portugal's population. The rolling plains are interrupted only by small medieval towns and the occasional larger centre such as UNESCO Heritage listed Évora. Towns to walk and explore. On this trip you will see the Portugal from centuries ago. And a glimpse into its passage to the twenty-first century.
